

scribed by the laws of the State of Maryland, for the condemnation of land or other property by said Mayor and City Council or by any corporation authorized to acquire lands or property by condemnation.

"Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the said Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, shall not under the power vested in it by the first section of this Act, have any power and authority to empty or discharge any crude sewerage into the Chesapeake bay, or any of its tributaries; and before adopting any plan for the disposal of the sewerage of said city, it shall submit said plan to the Board of Public Works of this State, and only after said Board of Public Works has approved thereof shall said plan be adopted.

"Sec. 5. And be it further enacted. That for the purpose of providing the money for constructing said sewerage system and sewers, the said Mayor and City Council of Baltimore is hereby authorized to issue and sell its certificates of stock in an amount not to exceed twelve million ($12,000,000) dollars, face value, at such times, for such denominations, payable at such dates and bearing such rate of interest, and in such form, as the said Mayor and City Council may by Ordinance provide. And all money to be provided to create a sinking fund to pay off such stock at maturity or interest thereon, or for redeeming the same, shall be raised by general taxation, and not by special assessment on contiguous property.

"But said certificates of stock shall not be issued until and unless an Ordinance shall be passed by the said Mayor and City Council of Baltimore providing for the issue of said certificates of stock, and shall have been submitted to the votes of the legal voters of Baltimore city and approved by a majority of said votes cast at the time and place to be provided in said Ordinance as required be section "Seven" of Article "Eleven" of the Constitution of the State of Maryland.

"Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage."

Which was considered.

At 2 P. M.

Mr. Wolfinger moved to adjourn.